GENERAL ORDER

Effective this date, it is the express ORDER of this court that the attached standard and special conditions of probation and supervised release are adopted and made record of this court.

Done this 29th day of January, 2002.

U.W. Clemon
Chief U.S. District Judge

- (1) The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime; specifically, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance and shall not own or possess a firearm or destructive device.
- (2) The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
- (3) The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five (5) days of each month.
- (4) The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, shall provide the probation officer access to requested financial information, and shall follow the instructions of the probation officer.
- (5) The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
- (6) The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
- (7) The defendant shall notify the probation officer ten (10) days prior to any change in residence or employment. (On change of residence to a new jurisdiction of a person convicted either of a crime of violence or of a drug trafficking offense, the Probation Office is responsible for complying with the notice provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 4042(b).)
- (8) The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol, except that a defendant while in the Drug and Alcohol Intensive Counseling and Aftercare Service Program (DAICASP) (or comparable program in another district) shall consume no alcohol. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances.
- (9) The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
- (10) The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- (11) The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
- (12) The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two (72) hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
- (13) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
- (14) The defendant shall comply with any directions from the probation officer to serve notice of third party risks the defendant may pose, and shall cooperate with the officer's efforts to confirm compliance.
- (15) The defendant shall comply with the probation office's Policies and Procedures Concerning Court Ordered Financial Obligations to satisfy the balance of any monetary obligation resulting from the sentence imposed in the case. Further, the defendant shall notify the probation office of any change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine, restitution, or assessment fee. If the defendant becomes more than 60 days delinquent in payments of financial obligations, the defendant may be (a) required to attend a financial education or employment preparation program if and as directed by the probation officer, (b) placed on home confinement subject to electronic monitoring for a maximum period of 90 days at the direction of the probation officer (with the defendant to pay the cost of monitoring if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so), and/or (c) placed in a residential treatment program or community corrections center for up to 180 days at the direction of the probation officer (with the defendant to pay the cost of subsistence if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so).

- (16) Unless excused by a special condition of probation or supervised release in the Judgment or by a subsequent court order, the defendant shall comply with 18 U.S.C. § 3563 (a) (probation) or § 3583 (d) (supervised release) regarding mandatory drug testing (with the defendant to contribute to the cost of drug testing if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so). A positive urinalysis may result in the defendant's placement in the probation office's Drug and Alcohol Intensive Counseling and Aftercare Service Program (DAICASP) (or comparable program in another district) at the direction of the probation officer.
- (17) The defendant may be placed in the probation office's Drug and Alcohol Intensive Counseling and Aftercare Service Program (DAICASP) (or comparable program in another district) by virtue of a special condition of probation or supervised release contained in the Judgment, at the direction of the probation officer after a positive urinalysis, or a court order entered during the period of probation or supervision for other good cause shown. This program may include (a) testing by the probation officer or an approved vendor to detect drug or alcohol abuse (with the defendant to contribute to the cost of drug testing if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so), (b) a mandatory drug education program (which may include individual or group counseling provided by the probation office or an approved vendor with the defendant to contribute to the cost of drug/alcohol treatment if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so), (c) placement in a residential treatment program or community corrections center for up to 180 days at the direction of the probation officer (with the defendant to pay the cost of subsistence if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so), and (d) home confinement subject to electronic monitoring for a maximum period of ninety (90) days at the direction of the probation officer (with the defendant to pay the cost of monitoring if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so).
- (18) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA if and as directed by the probation officer.
- (19) If ordered to a period of supervised release after incarceration, the defendant shall report in person, within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, to the probation office in the district where the defendant is released.

The special condition(s) ordered by the Court (is/are) as follows:

1. The defendant shall serve _____ months home detention, which may include electronic monitoring, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of monitoring if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so.
2. The defendant shall serve up to 180 days community confinement in the Community Corrections Center, or such other designated facility, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of subsistence if the probation officer determines that defendant has the ability to do so.
3. The defendant shall serve _____ months community confinement in the Community Corrections Center, or such other designated facility, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay the cost of subsistence if the probation officer determines that defendant has the ability to do so.
4. The defendant shall not incur any new debts (other than normal debts for utilities, rental expenses, or mortgage payments) or open any new lines of credit without permission of the probation officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the payment of any monetary obligations ordered.
5. The mandatory drug testing provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3563(a) are waived upon the Court's finding that the offense of conviction is not drug-related, there is no current or past history of substance abuse, and there is a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant.
6. The mandatory drug testing provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d) are waived upon the Court's finding that the offense of conviction is not drug-related, there is no current or past history of substance abuse, and there is a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant.
7. The defendant shall participate, if and as directed by the probation officer, in the Drug and Alcohol Intensive Counseling and Aftercare Service Program (DAICASP) conducted by the probation office (or a comparable program conducted in the district of supervision). (See the Standard Conditions for a brief description of possible terms of such participation.)
8. The defendant shall participate, if and as directed by the probation officer, in such mental health/vocational rehabilitation programs as the officer may direct. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of mental health treatment if the probation officer determines that the defendant has the ability to do so.
9. The defendant shall perform _____ hours of community service as directed by the probation officer.
10. Upon completion of the term of imprisonment, the defendant shall be remanded to the custody of the U.S. Marshal Service for surrender to an authorized Immigration and Naturalization Service official for deportation proceedings in accordance with the Immigration and Nationality Act. If deported, (a) the term of supervision shall be non-reporting while the defendant resides outside the United States, (b) the defendant shall not reenter the United States without the express permission of the United States Attorney General, and (c) if the defendant should reenter the United States within the term of supervised release, the defendant is to report to the nearest United States Probation Office within seventy-two (72) hours of arrival.

11. The defendant shall not possess a pager, cellular telephone, scanner or any other portable communication device [or direct any person on his behalf to do so], without the written consent of the probation officer specifying that such consent is in connection with legitimate employment.
12. The defendant shall not have any unsupervised, one-to-one contact with any children under the age of 18 other than his own children.
13. The defendant shall not engage in any occupation, employment, or volunteer activities which would place him in a position of trust with children under the age of 18.
14. The defendant shall register and comply with all Community Notification Act requirements and any then applicable local, state, or federal laws dealing with the monitoring of those convicted of sex-related offenses.
15. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any computer and computer-related equipment which he utilizes.
16. The defendant shall not subscribe to or otherwise use any online computer bulletin boards.
17. The defendant shall not use any online or computer bulletin board service except in the service of his employer, for the benefit of his employer, and through the equipment of his employer. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to the computer and any disks or computer files of his employer for the purpose of verifying their exclusive business use.
18. The defendant shall allow the probation officer access to any photographs and/or video recordings he may possess.
